

FOD's Newsletter

Thursday 22nd September

Don't forget Badley Weekend this coming Saturday. Dunannie and the FODs look forward to welcoming pupils and their parents from 11.00am – 1.30pm; coffee and tea will be available in the Library and there are lots of fun projects to get involved in. Feel free to bring in your own snacks or packed lunches. We look forward to seeing you there.

Dates for your diaries:

FOD's Coffee Mornings for the Autumn Term (in the Dunannie Library)

Friday 7th October

Our first coffee morning of the term will be held in the Library after drop-off, we look forward to catching up with you while having a restorative cup of tea or coffee!

Wednesday 12th October:

10.30am Harvest Celebration – details to follow.

Friday 21st October: 3.30pm in the Dunannie Library

The Great Dunannie Bake-Off

Our biggest cake & bake sale ever! To include all types of cakes, pies, breads and home produce. We invite you to get your aprons on, bake your hearts out and we will sell the end results at school to raise funds for Hounds for Heroes - a locally based charity whose purpose is to provide specially trained assistance dogs to injured and disabled men and women of both the UK armed forces and civilian emergency services. Through this provision their aims are to provide help and practical support leading to an enhanced quality of life.

Tuesday 1st November -8.45am (Dunhurst Dining Room)

Bedales Parents' Literary Review

Bedales writer in residence, Jake Wallis Simons, will be coming to talk to us about his most recent novel, 'The English German Girl'. One Tree Books in Petersfield have been asked to stock some copies of the book.

Please keep your eyes on the Flower Rota on the pinboard - class reps would greatly appreciate any offers of assistance when it is your class' turn to do the flowers.
