Drums signal call to act on climate change

By Clive Burch, Head of Block 3

Last Monday’s senior school assembly brought together the Three Schools under the banner of Action Against Climate Change. Percussion teacher Kristian Bediako opened proceedings with a group of over 20 drummers from Block 3, calling forth collective action through audience participation, with dancers of all ages taking centre stage. At some point in their time here, Kristian has taught almost every student in the Three Schools, so who better to lead the charge?

Afterwards, Anouk Szpitalak and Freddie Robinson from our youngest Eco-Team stepped up to share Dunannie’s action plan to combat climate change at a local level. Neither were daunted by the assembled masses and both spoke with a touching sincerity. They were followed by Dunhurst’s Eco-Team who, along with Head of Outdoor Work Ryan Walsh, shared the steps they are taking to achieve Eco-School status as well as the topics they are focussing on, namely Biodiversity, Energy, Global Citizenship, Litter and School Grounds. ### Oscar Wilde experience for 6.1 English students

Following last month’s John Keats experience day for 6.2 students, it was the turn of 6.1 English Literature students to be transported back in time on Monday as they marked the end of their study of Oscar Wilde’s The Importance of Being Earnest by taking part in an experience day designed to cement their understanding of the play. One of Wilde’s most renowned comedies, The Importance of Being Earnest tells the story of two bachelors and friends, John ‘Jack’ Worthing and Algernon ‘Algy’ Moncrieff, who create alter egos named Ernest to escape their everyday lives and win the hearts of two women who claim they are only able to love men called Ernest. As the play progresses and the pair struggle to keep up with their yarns, they become embroiled in a tale of duplicity that ridicules the sensibilities of the Victorian era in which it is set. ### Preparing for DofE Gold Award

By Alex Lunn, 6.1

Canoeing. Sunny days. Leisurely trips down a glistening river. Well, this was not the case when 6.1 Duke of Edinburgh (DofE) Award students spent a Saturday afternoon in Southampton training for embarking on their Gold Award! After gracefully getting toggled up in perfectly sized waterproofs, these magnificent vessels were launched on the centre’s placid lake. Our instructor imparted expert knowledge of how to side paddle to turn sharply and where the centre of weight should be, based on wind and current speeds. After all, this will be a true expedition, requiring much stamina! Fearing we might need some more work, the instructor was pleasantly surprised when our group appeared extremely able and it seemed the task would be less of a challenge than initially anticipated. Soon we were crossing the nearby road and into the nearby River Itchen. Only in England can we enjoy such nature in the midst of train tracks and a small airport. Read more...

Running and mountaineering for good causes

Great South Run - By Rob Reynolds, Director of External Relations

‘Couch to Great South Run!’ Bedales is encouraging parents, students, staff, Old Bedalians and friends to enter the Great South Run, one of Europe’s most popular 10 mile races, attracting over 20,000 runners annually. The weekend of running in Southsea includes junior events from age 3 upwards, a canine run (human + dog), and 5k (14+ years) on Saturday 19 October with the full 10 miles (16+ years) on Sunday 20 October. All standards are welcome - beginners through to seasoned professionals (Mo Farah and Paula Radcliffe are previous winners). Over the past two years, 65 Bedales runners have raised over £12,000 for the John Badley Foundation and other good causes. We are delighted the Country House Company is once again supporting the team. There's more about the events on the Great Run website, or please get in touch with Rob Reynolds (rreynolds@bedales.org.uk) for more information about joining the Bedales runners.

Mountain climb for Eswatini - By Oscar Goldblatt, 6.1

In October 2019, a group of 23 Bedales students will go to Eswatini (formerly known as Swaziland) to help at a school and fund materials to install reliable water, solar power to power the pump, and carry out general improvement works to the school facilities. In order to do this, we need to raise a minimum of £10,000. A group of us are planning to climb Mount Snowdon between 24-26 May. It will make a real difference to the local community and we would greatly appreciate your help in supporting us. You can sponsor us via our Gofundme page here.

'Impressive' new Block 1-4 play

By Samuel Vernor-Miles, 6.2

Having heard about the play – new for this academic year – that would combine Dunhurst's top two years and Bedales' lower two, I didn't know what to expect. However, after going to see it last Friday, I was certainly glad I had. The student directed, led, acted and written production featured growing talents from both schools, and they performed brilliantly. Performed on the Lupton Hall stage and adding an equally impressive homemade time machine – with very impressive effects when used – the audience was captivated, laughing and connecting with the characters in front of them. All of those involved should be incredibly proud of themselves, especially those who put it together behind the scenes. Overall, it was a really lovely production that I'm glad to have seen and I can't wait to see what the collaborative students do next! See photos from the production here.

Exhibitioners' Concert

By Imogen Sinclair-Jenkins, 6.2

On 19 March, the Exhibitioners' Concert saw 16 music exhibitioners perform in the Lupton Hall for their termly concert. The standard was set very high after a busy term and limited rehearsal time due to the Spring Concert and the Petersfield Festival. There was a wide range of instruments and ensembles that had the chance to perform, from the French horn to bassoon and a trio for flute, oboe and piano. It was a great opportunity for everybody to gain practise performing in front of a welcoming and supportive audience. The next Exhibitioners' Concert will take place next term, on Thursday 23 May at 7.30pm in the Lupton Hall. Tickets are free; book via Bedales Events here.

Enjoyable Spring Equinox parents' events

By Camilla Bashaarat

Last week saw over 160 Bedales parents taking part in a series of social events, ranging from the first whole Block Parents' Dinner, for Block 3 parents, on Sunday evening, to a fermentation workshop, a yoga retreat, a workshop on the healing power of flower essences and a fabulous morning learning which plants to forage and how to use them in delicious seasonal recipes. Thank you to everyone who came along. Feedback has been overwhelmingly positive and we hope this will be the start of some new friendships, new interests, and most importantly, a lot of fun. Please do email parents@bedales.org.uk if you have ideas for future events or visits. A number of additional social events have been organised for parents for the summer term, including a Behind the Scenes Tour of the Royal Opera House in Covent Garden (2 May, £20); a Wild Garlic Pesto, Foraging and Pizza Evening (17 May, £14); and a Vodka Cocktail Mixology Class and Dinner at the Polish Club, London (13 June, £60). ### Bedales blog – Insightful visit to Brockwood Park

By Blossom Gottlieb, 6.2

A vegetarian school where the students choose whether to take exams or not? Sign me up! On 13 March, a group of three students in 6.2 took a trip with Al McConville to Brockwood Park School, only 15 minutes away in Alresford, to join their Inquiry Time (described as their "weekly opportunity to look deeper at issues arising in life, living together, the intentions of the school and how we respond to them") and get involved in their Human Ecology (aka Outdoor Work on steroids!) I was struck not only by the beautiful surroundings of the school, but the sense of community that we experienced in the assembly as soon as we arrived. Sat in a circular formation around a few meditating people in the centre of this octagonal timber-roofed room, the atmosphere of peace was incomparable. Inquiry Time is an hour and a half session where students and teachers discuss a topic of importance, without debating it, enabling them to share their opinions without fear of judgement. ### Sports update: Strong performances in hockey

By Kevin Boniface, Head of Hockey – U14 Boys' Hockey v St Edmunds – On Tuesday, the U14 side played host to St Edmunds. The visitors had a number of talented players in their side and dominated possession and the majority of the attacking territory for long periods of the game. However, it was pleasing to see a real grit and determination from the home side and this, combined with some outstanding goalkeeping from Josh Baty, meant the Bedales side deservedly kept a clean sheet. At the other end of the pitch, an increasing amount of attacking possession led to a number of half chances for Bedales. However, these were not converted and the match ended in an entertaining 0-0 draw.

U16 Boys' Hockey v Lord Wandsworth College – On Wednesday, the U16 boys travelled away to Lord Wandsworth College. Illness and increasing workload had depleted the side, but in stepped Block 3 students Elio Mazas and Zach Stewart, and a return to hockey for Claude Barker bolstered the team. With a new look side, and despite the brilliant shot stopping of Laurence Johari, it was perhaps no surprise that the Bedales side soon found themselves 2-0 down. However, in a flash of brilliance, centre forward Oscar Amis beat two men at the top of the circle and scored a superb reverse stick strike to make it 2-1 at the break. The half-time team talk focused on giving our forwards an opportunity to run behind the defence, and reminding players that the next goal would be crucial. Led by the hard working, commanding Arthur Lingham, the Bedales side started the second half with real intent and were incredibly unlucky not to draw level as another powerful strike from Oscar was matched with a reaction save off the shoulder from Lord Wandsworth's keeper. A number of decent chances followed but Bedales couldn't convert and were punished by two goals on the break from Lord Wandsworth. The game ended 4-2 as Oscar scored a late consolation goal.

U14 Boys' Hockey v Lord Wandsworth College – The U14s also travelled away to Lord Wandsworth College on Wednesday. Buoyed by a recent run of good form, they were going into the game with confidence. However, a decent Lord Wandsworth went 2-0 to the good. Perhaps at the start of the season this may have killed off the Bedales team, but as the season has progressed they have become mentally stronger and consequently forced their way back into the game with a superb volley finish from Zach Stewart, while Elias Mazas converted towards the end of the game to earn a credible draw.
